SPECIALTY SUMMARY:

Performs and manages cryptologic intelligence analysis activities and functions in all domains. Analyzes and exploits intelligence information, develops targets, and provides situational awareness for operations personnel and key leadership. Conducts research and develops assessments of adversarial actions and intentions. Drafts and disseminates long-term and time-sensitive intelligence reports to consumers worldwide. Related DoD Occupational Subgroups: 123200 and 124300.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- a. General Duties: Supports analytical aspects of various Air Force and Joint Intelligence, Surveillance, and Reconnaissance (ISR) operations by collating, analyzing, evaluating, and disseminating signals intelligence information. Analyzes, studies, researches, fuses, and correlates intelligence for strategic, operational, and tactical customers. Enables all-source intelligence, situation estimates, order-of-battle studies, and other intelligence reports and studies. Advises commanders on force protection and intelligence information for US and allied forces.

- b. Cryptologic Analysis and Reporting: Analyzes, assesses, and prioritizes information obtained from intelligence collection efforts and synthesizes information to provide serialized intelligence reports to authorized recipients. Identifies, correlates, and fuses technical, geographical, and operational intelligence information. Authors time-sensitive intelligence reports in accordance with established guidelines to support decisions makers. Identifies and disseminates real-time threat warning information in support of DoD objectives.
- c. Target Network Analysis: Conducts in-depth analysis of communications characteristics and target tactics, techniques, and procedures. Creates and maintains technical and operational databases using diverse computer hardware and software applications. Performs detailed analysis on target network communications for additional exploitation. Develops and employs techniques to collect, identify, and exploit target networks and operating characteristics.
- d. Air Operations & Integration: Provides detailed support to contingency and deliberate planning processes. Operates mission essential communications mediums to ensure threat warning capability. Utilizes all-source intelligence information to produce and present topical high-interest technical and operational intelligence briefings to all levels of command. Prepares target communication assessments, adversary order of battle studies, situation reports, and other intelligence reports as required. Produces, analyzes, studies, researches, fuses, and correlates intelligence for strategic, operational, and tactical customers. Provides target geopolitical and operational intelligence to national agencies and military command authorities. Provides analysis of Information Operations activities and reach-back cryptologic support to Air and Space Operations Centers and supported commanders. Executes near real-time intelligence support to sensitive reconnaissance missions. Provides multi-intelligence analysis of adversary tactics in support of Intelligence Preparation of the Operational Environment supporting Air Force training and tactics development.
- e. Cryptologic Training Activities: Instructs military personnel on cryptologic collection, analysis, reporting requirements and procedures. Collates intelligence and operations materials to impart proper tradecraft supporting air, space, and cyberspace signals intelligence analysis. Drives development of tradecraft to broadly enable DoD missions. Integrates information assurance, cyber, cryptologic authorities, and data to evolve development of tradecraft and generate measurable mission outcomes.
- f. Weapons & Tactics Function: Manages and refines intelligence production workflows and collaborates with subject matter experts to drive tactics development. Ensures operational readiness by integrating emerging tradecraft and delivering continuation training to unit personnel.
- g. Processes, exploits, and disseminates intelligence products and conducts analysis concerning threat countries or targets of interest via written and/or verbal means. These products provide specificity and knowledge to commanders and national leaders to impact tactical through strategic level decision making process.
